GROUP TRAVEL ITINERARY

ABOUT

Kingsbridge is a perfect destination for Group Visits in South Devon.

Tucked into the heart of the South Hams in South Devon, Kingsbridge offers the ideal blend of coastal scenery, market-town charm, and easy access to Devon's most loved landscapes.

Whether you're organising a coach holiday, walking club getaway, social group excursion, or special-interest tour, Kingsbridge provides a welcoming base with plenty to see and do at a relaxed pace.

A TOWN THAT WELCOMES GROUPS...

Kingsbridge has long been a gathering place – its historic market roots mean it's well set up for visitors arriving together. The compact town centre makes orientation easy, with the quay, Fore Street, and over 60 independent shops all within a short walk. Groups appreciate the balance: enough activity to stay engaged, but never overwhelming. Weekly markets and local produce stalls add colour and authenticity, giving visitors a genuine taste of South Devon life.

Scenic Experiences Without the Rush

One of Kingsbridge's greatest strengths is its estuary setting. The calm waters of the Kingsbridge-Salcombe estuary create opportunities for gentle, group-friendly experiences:

- Scenic boat trips with wildlife spotting
- Accessible estuary walks suitable for mixed mobility
- Photography opportunities at every turn

For walking groups, nearby stretches of the South West Coast Path provide breathtaking views without requiring strenuous climbs.

Easy Excursions to Iconic Coastal Spots

Kingsbridge's location makes it a perfect base for exploring the South Devon coast. Within a short drive, groups can visit:

- Salcombe - a picturesque harbour town known for sailing and seaside charm
- Slapton Sands - a unique shingle beach with WWII history and a nature reserve
- Dartmouth - historic streets, river views, and maritime heritage
- Totnes - historic market town with lots of great independent shops

These nearby destinations allow organisers to create varied itineraries while keeping travel times short.

It's strongly advised that you pre-book your visits to discover the best discounts & availability!

FOOD & DINING FOR GROUPS

South Devon is known for its produce, and Kingsbridge showcases it well. Many eateries cater to groups with advance booking, offering everything from fresh seafood to traditional Devon cream teas.

Waterside dining is a particular highlight, allowing visitors to relax while taking in estuary views – a memorable experience for coach parties and celebratory gatherings alike.
